Article 4

Terms used in these Regulations are defined as follows:

1. Derivatives: Forward contracts, options contracts, futures contracts, leverage contracts, or swap contracts, whose value is derived from a specified interest rate, financial instrument price, commodity price, foreign exchange rate, index of prices or rates, credit rating or credit index, or other variable; or hybrid contracts combining the above contracts; or hybrid contracts or structured products containing embedded derivatives. The term "forward contracts" does not include insurance contracts, performance contracts, after-sales service contracts, long-term leasing contracts, or long-term purchase (sales) contracts.
2. Assets acquired or disposed through mergers, demergers, acquisitions, or transfer of shares in accordance with law: Refers to assets acquired or disposed through mergers, demergers, or acquisitions conducted under the Business Mergers and Acquisitions Act, Financial Holding company Act, Financial Institution Merger Act and other acts, or to transfer of shares from another company through issuance of new shares of its own as the consideration therefor (hereinafter "transfer of shares") under Article 156-3, of the Company Act.
3. Related party or subsidiary: As defined in the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.
4. Professional appraiser: Refers to a real property appraiser or other person duly authorized by law to engage in the value appraisal of real property or equipment.
5. Date of occurrence: Refers to the date of contract signing, date of payment, date of consignment trade, date of transfer, dates of boards of directors resolutions, or other date that can confirm the counterpart and monetary amount of the transaction, whichever date is earlier; provided, for investment for which approval of the competent authority is required, the earlier of the above date or the date of receipt of approval by the competent authority shall apply.

6. Mainland China area investment: Refers to investments in the mainland China area approved by the Ministry of Economic Affairs Investment Commission or conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations Governing Permission for Investment or Technical Cooperation in the Mainland Area.
7. "The latest financial statement" shall mean the financial statement attested or audited openly by a certified public accountant before the acquisition or disposal of assets by the Company.

Article 5

Professional appraisers and their officers, certified public accounts, attorneys, and securities underwriters that provide public companies with appraisal reports, certified public accountant's opinions, attorney's opinions, or underwriter's opinions shall meet the following requirements:

1. May not have previously received a final and unappealable sentence to imprisonment for 1 year or longer for a violation of the Act, the Company Act, the Banking Act of The Republic of China, the Insurance Act, the Financial Holding Company Act, or the Business Entity Accounting Act, or for fraud, breach of trust, embezzlement, forgery of documents, or occupational crime. However, this provision does not apply if 3 years have already passed since completion of service of the sentence, since expiration of the period of a suspended sentence, or since a pardon was received.
2. May not be a related party or de facto related party of any party to the transaction.
3. If the company is required to obtain appraisal reports from two or more professional appraisers, the different professional appraisers or appraisal officers may not be related parties or de facto related parties of each other.

When issuing an appraisal report or opinion, the personnel referred to in the preceding paragraph shall comply with the following:

1. Prior to accepting a case, they shall prudently assess their own professional capabilities, practical experience, and independence.
2. When examining a case, they shall appropriately plan and execute adequate working procedures, in order to produce a conclusion and use the conclusion as the basis for issuing the report or opinion. The related working procedures, data collected, and conclusion shall be fully and accurately specified in the case working papers.
3. They shall undertake an item-by-item evaluation of the comprehensiveness, accuracy, and reasonableness of the sources of data used, the parameters, and the information, as the basis for issuance of the appraisal report or the opinion.
4. They shall issue a statement attesting to the professional competence and independence of the personnel who prepared the report or opinion, and that they have evaluated and found that the information used is reasonable and accurate, and that they have complied with applicable laws and regulations.

Article 6

The limits on real property and right-of-use assets thereof or securities acquired by the Company for non-business use

1. The Company's acquisition of non-business real property and right-of-use assets thereof or securities is limited to the following amount limits:
 - (1) The total amount of real property and right-of-use assets acquired for non-business use shall not exceed 50% of the net value according to the latest financial statements of the Company.

- (2) The total amount of investment in securities shall not exceed 50% of the net value according to the latest financial statements of the Company. The amount of investment in any individual security shall not exceed 30% of the net value according to the latest financial statements of the Company. Securities with guaranteed principal shall not be included in the calculation of the amount of investment in securities.
2. The Company's investment in subsidiaries shall be done in accordance with resolutions of the board of directors as authorized by the Company's articles of association and shall not be subject to the limit of not exceeding 40% of the paid-in capital under Article 13 of the Company Law.

Article 7

The Company shall specify the following items in its procedures for the acquisition or disposal of assets, and handle the acquisition or disposal matters in compliance with the procedures:

1. The scope of assets.
2. Appraisal procedures: Shall include the means of price determination and supporting reference materials.
3. Operating procedures: Shall include the degree of authority delegated, the levels to which authority is delegated, the units responsible for implementation, and transaction process.
4. Public announcement and regulatory filing procedures.
5. Total amounts of real property and right-of-use assets thereof or securities acquired by the Company and each subsidiary for business use, and limits on individual securities.
6. Control procedures for the acquisition and disposal of assets by subsidiaries.
7. Penalties for personnel violating these Regulations or the procedures for the acquisition or disposal of assets.
8. Other important matters.

The Company that engages in any related party transaction, engages in derivatives trading, or conducts a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares of enterprises shall, in addition to conducting such matters in compliance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, shall also establish related procedures in accordance with the provisions of this processing procedure.

The Company shall see to it that its subsidiaries adopt and implement the procedures for the acquisition or disposal of assets in compliance with these Regulations.

Article 8

Article 9

In acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment, or right-of-use assets thereof where the transaction amount reaches 20 percent of the company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the company, unless transacting with a domestic government agency, engaging others to build on its own land, engaging others to build on rented land, or acquiring or disposing of equipment or right-of-use assets thereof held for business use, shall obtain an appraisal report prior to the date of occurrence of the event from a professional appraiser and shall further comply with the following provisions:

1. Where due to special circumstances it is necessary to give a limited price, specified price, or special price as a reference basis for the transaction price, the transaction shall be submitted for approval in advance by the board of directors; the same procedure shall also be followed whenever there is any subsequent change to the terms and conditions of the transaction.
2. Where the transaction amount is NT$1 billion or more, appraisals from two or more professional appraisers shall be obtained.

3. Where any one of the following circumstances applies with respect to the professional appraiser's appraisal results, unless all the appraisal results for the assets to be acquired are higher than the transaction amount, or all the appraisal results for the assets to be disposed of are lower than the transaction amount, a certified public accountant shall be engaged to perform the appraisal in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ROC Accounting Research and Development Foundation (ARDF) and render a specific opinion regarding the reason for the discrepancy and the appropriateness of the transaction price:
 - A. The discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is 20 percent or more of the transaction amount.
 - B. The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is 10 percent or more of the transaction amount.
4. No more than 3 months may elapse between the date of the appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser and the contract execution date; provided, where the publicly announced current value for the same period is used and not more than 6 months have elapsed, an opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser.

Article 10

The Company acquiring or disposing of securities shall, prior to the date of occurrence of the event, obtain financial statements of the issuing company for the most recent period, certified or reviewed by a certified public accountant, for reference in appraising the transaction price, and if the dollar amount of the transaction is 20 percent of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the Company shall additionally engage a certified public accountant prior to the date of occurrence of the event to provide an opinion regarding the reasonableness of the transaction price. If the CPA needs to use the report of an expert as evidence, the CPA shall do so in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF. This requirement does not apply, however, to publicly quoted prices of securities that have an active market, or where otherwise provided by regulations of the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC).

Article 11

Where the Company acquires or disposes of intangible assets or right-of-use assets thereof or memberships and the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, except in transactions with a domestic government agency, the company shall engage a certified public accountant prior to the date of occurrence of the event to render an opinion on the reasonableness of the transaction price; the CPA shall comply with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF.

Article 11-1

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in the preceding three articles shall be done in accordance with Article 30, paragraph 2 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

Article 12

Where the Company acquires or disposes of assets through court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or CPA opinion.

Article 13

When the Company engages in any acquisition or disposal of assets from or to a related party in compliance with the provisions of this processing procedure, in addition to ensuring that the necessary resolutions are adopted and the reasonableness of the transaction terms is appraised, if the transaction amount reaches 10 percent or more of the company's total assets, the company shall also obtain an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion in compliance with Article 5、9 and 12 hereof.

The calculation of the transaction amount referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be made in accordance with Article 11-1 herein.

When judging whether a trading counterparty is a related party, in addition to legal formalities, the substance of the relationship shall also be considered.

Article 14

When the Company intends to acquire or dispose of real property or right-of-use assets thereof from or to a related party, or when it intends to acquire or dispose of assets other than real property or right-of-use assets thereof from or to a related party and the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital, 10 percent or more of the Company's total assets, or NT$300 million or more, except in trading of domestic government bonds or bonds under repurchase and resale agreements, or subscription or repurchase of domestic money market funds issued by Securities Investment Trust Enterprises, the Company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the following matters have been approved by the board of directors and recognized by the audit committee:

1. The purpose, necessity and anticipated benefit of the acquisition or disposal of assets.
2. The reason for choosing the related party as a trading counterparty.
3. With respect to the acquisition of real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, information regarding appraisal of the reasonableness of the preliminary transaction terms in accordance with Article 15 and Article 16.
4. The date and price at which the related party originally acquired the real property, the original trading counterparty, and that trading counterparty's relationship to the Company and the related party.
5. Monthly cash flow forecasts for the year commencing from the anticipated month of signing of the contract, and evaluation of the necessity of the transaction, and reasonableness of the funds utilization.
6. An appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion obtained in compliance with the preceding article.
7. Restrictive covenants and other important stipulations associated with the transaction.

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be made in accordance with Article 30, paragraph 2 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items that have been approved by the board of directors and recognized by the independent directors need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

With respect to the types of transactions listed below, when to be conducted between the Company and its parent or subsidiaries, or between its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, the company's board of directors may pursuant to Article 7, paragraph 1, subparagraph 3 delegate the board chairman to decide such matters when the transaction is within a certain amount and have the decisions subsequently submitted to and ratified by the next board of directors meeting:

1. Acquisition or disposal of equipment or right-of-use assets thereof held for business use.
2. Acquisition or disposal of real property right-of-use assets held for business use.

When a matter is submitted for discussion by the board of directors pursuant to paragraph 1, the board of directors shall take into full consideration each independent director's opinions. If an independent director objects to or expresses reservations about any matter, it shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors meeting.

The matters for which paragraph 1 requires recognition by the audit committee shall first be approved by more than half of all audit committee members and then submitted to the board of directors for a resolution, and shall be subject to mutatis mutandis application of Article 33, paragraphs 4 and 5.

Article 15

The Company that acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party shall evaluate the reasonableness of the transaction costs by the following means:

1. Based upon the related party's transaction price plus necessary interest on funding and the costs to be duly borne by the buyer. "Necessary interest on funding" is imputed as the weighted average interest rate on borrowing in the year the Company purchases the property; provided, it may not be higher than the maximum non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance.
2. Total loan value appraisal from a financial institution where the related party has previously created a mortgage on the property as security for a loan; provided, the actual cumulative amount loaned by the financial institution shall have been 70 percent or more of the financial institution's appraised loan value of the property and the period of the loan shall have been 1 year or more. However, this shall not apply where the financial institution is a related party of one of the trading counterparties.

Where land and structures thereupon are combined as a single property purchased or leased in one transaction, the transaction costs for the land and the structures may be separately appraised in accordance with either of the means listed in the preceding paragraph.

The Company that acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and appraises the cost of the real property or right-of-use assets thereof in accordance with the preceding two paragraphs shall also engage a CPA to check the appraisal and render a specific opinion.

Where the Company acquires real property from a related party and one of the following circumstances exists, the acquisition shall be conducted in accordance with Article 14 and the preceding three paragraphs do not apply:

1. The related party acquired the real property or right-of-use assets thereof through inheritance or as a gift.
2. More than 5 years will have elapsed from the time the related party signed the contract to obtain the real property or right-of-use assets thereof to the signing date for the current transaction.
3. The real property is acquired through signing of a joint development contract with the related party, or through engaging a related party to build real property, either on the Company's own land or on rented land.
4. The real property right-of-use assets for business use are acquired by the Company with its parent or subsidiaries, or by its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital.

Article 16

When the results of the Company's appraisal conducted in accordance with paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 of the preceding Article are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the matter shall be handled in compliance with Article 17. However, where the following circumstances exist, objective evidence has been submitted and specific opinions on reasonableness have been obtained from a professional real property appraiser and a CPA have been obtained, this restriction shall not apply:

1. Where the related party acquired undeveloped land or leased land for development, it may submit proof of compliance with one of the following conditions:
 - A. Where undeveloped land is appraised in accordance with the means in the preceding Article, and structures according to the related party's construction cost plus reasonable construction profit are valued in excess of the actual transaction price. The "Reasonable construction profit" shall be deemed the average gross operating profit margin of the related party's construction division over the most recent 3 years or the gross profit margin for the construction industry for the most recent period as announced by the Ministry of Finance, whichever is lower.
 - B. Completed transactions by unrelated parties within the preceding year involving other floors of the same property or neighboring or closely valued parcels of land, where the land area and transaction terms are similar after calculation of reasonable price discrepancies in floor or area land prices in accordance with standard property market sale or leasing practices.
2. Where the Company acquiring real property, or obtaining real property right-of-use assets through leasing, from a related party provides evidence that the terms of the transaction are similar to the terms of completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land of a similar size by unrelated parties within the preceding year.

Completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land in the preceding paragraph in principle refers to parcels on the same or an adjacent block and within a distance of no more than 500 meters or parcels close in publicly announced current value; transactions involving similarly sized parcels in principle refers to transactions completed by unrelated parties for parcels with a land area of no less than 50 percent of the property in the planned transaction; within the preceding year refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the acquisition of the real property or obtainment of the right-of-use assets thereof.

Article 17

Where the Company acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and the results of appraisals conducted in accordance with Article 15 and Article 16 are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the following steps shall be taken:

1. A special reserve shall be set aside in accordance with Article 41, paragraph 1 of the Act against the difference between the real property or right-of-use assets thereof transaction price and the appraised cost, and may not be distributed or used for capital increase or issuance of bonus shares. Where the Company uses the equity method to account for its investment in another company, then the special reserve called for under Article 41, paragraph of the Act shall be set aside pro rata in a proportion consistent with the share of public company's equity stake in the other company.
2. Independent directors of the audit committee shall comply with Article 218 of the Company Act.
3. Actions taken pursuant to the preceding two subparagraphs shall be reported to a shareholders meeting, and the details of the transaction shall be disclosed in the annual report and any investment prospectus.

The Company that has set aside a special reserve under the preceding paragraph may not utilize the special reserve until it has recognized a loss on decline in market value of the assets it purchased or leased at a premium, or they have been disposed of, or the leasing contract has been terminated, or adequate compensation has been made, or the status quo ante has been restored, or there is other evidence confirming that there was nothing unreasonable about the transaction, and the FSC has given its consent.

When the Company obtains real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, it shall also comply with the preceding two paragraphs if there is other evidence indicating that the acquisition was not an arms length transaction.

Article 18

The Company engaging in derivatives trading shall pay strict attention to control of the following important risk management and auditing matters, and incorporate them into their Procedures:

1. Trading principles and strategies: Shall include the types of derivatives that may be traded, operating or hedging strategies, segregation of duties, essentials of performance evaluation, total amount of derivatives contracts that may be traded, and the maximum loss limit on total trading and for individual contracts.
2. Risk management measures.
3. Internal audit system.
4. Regular evaluation methods and the handling of irregular circumstances.

Article 19

Evaluation and Procedure for Acquisition or Disposal of Derivative Products In order to effectively manage the Company's income, expenses, assets, debts and risks arising out of foreign exchange and the Company's transactions of derivative products.

Board approval is required when engaging in other transactions of derivative products.

1. Types of Transactions The term "derivatives" in these Procedures means products such as forward contracts, options contracts, futures contracts, leverage contracts, and swap contracts, and compound contracts combining the above products, whose value is derived from assets, interest rates, foreign exchange rates, indexes or other interests. The term "forward contracts" does not include insurance contracts, performance contracts, after-sales service contracts, long-term leasing contracts, or long-term purchase (sales) agreements. This Procedure shall not be applicable to the transactions of bonds with repurchase conditions.
2. Operation or Hedging Strategy The Company engages in transactions of derivative products for the purpose of avoiding risks arising out of fluctuation of foreign exchange rate, interest rate or asset price. Hedging is limited to foreign currency positions payable/receivable arising out of the Company's business for the future six months. Before engaging in the transaction, it shall be verified that it is a hedging operation. It shall be ascertained before a transaction that it is a hedging operation.
3. Segregation of Duties The finance manager shall designate the staff of the finance department who may engage in derivative product transactions and confirmations. There shall be transaction confirmation and settlement staff. The confirmation staff shall be responsible for confirming the transaction with the transaction counterparty. The settlement staff shall be responsible for arranging settlement due. The transaction confirmation staff shall not be the same person as the settlement staff.
4. Determination of Limit on Total Transaction Contract Amount and Loss Limit With respect of the total contract amount of derivatives transactions the Company is engaged in, the cumulative total balance of the outstanding contracts shall not exceed the Company's total imports and exports for six months. The individual contract losses shall not exceed 20% of contract amount of each individual transaction. The combined contract losses shall not exceed 20% of total contract amount.
5. Performance Review The performance of hedging operations shall be evaluated based on the hedging strategies.
6. The degree of authority delegated, the levels to which authority is delegated The authorization amount and level for hedging operations are as follows: The transaction staff authorized by the Company shall carry out transactions in accordance with the total transaction contract amount limit under Subsection 4, Section 1, Article 19 and the transaction may only be carried out following evaluation by the finance manager and approval by the responsible supervisor. Each transaction shall be subject to internal written approval based on the amount. The authorization amount, transaction approval and level are as follows:

Amount(NT$)	Department Supervisor	General Manager	Chairman	Board of Directors
Below 200 Million	Review	Review	Approval
200 Million and above (inclusive)	Review	Review	Review	Resolution

To ensure that the transaction counterparty complies with the Company's supervision and management, the transaction authorization amount and level provided under this article shall be notified to the transaction counterparty in writing. However, if the written confirmation with the transaction counterparty does not indicate the authorization amount, then the supervisor of the finance department will approve the transaction.

7. Significant Derivative Product Transaction Significant derivative product transactions shall be carried out in accordance with relevant rules and submitted to the board of directors for resolution.
8. The units responsible for implementation and Process
 - A. Confirm transaction position.
 - B. Analysis and judgment about relevant trend.
 - C. Determine specific hedging method:
 - (1) Transaction target.
 - (2) Transaction position.
 - (3) Target price and range.
 - (4) Transaction strategy and type.
 - (5) Price reference based on public quoting system.
 - D. Obtain approval for transaction.
 - E. Execute transaction.
 - (1) Transaction Counterparty: Transaction counterparties shall be selected with priority consideration for credit risk.
 - (2) Transaction Staff: The Company's staff who may execute derivative product transactions shall first be approved by the highest decision making supervisor of the finance department, general manager and chairman and then notified to the financial institution dealing with the Company. No other staff may engage in the transactions.
9. Risk Management
 - A. Credit Risk: In principle, the Company's transaction counterparties are limited to banks or renowned financial institutions dealing with the Company and those who can provide professional information. Otherwise, approval shall be required from the highest decision making supervisor of the finance department.
 - B. Market Risk: The Company's derivative financial products shall be focused on hedging transactions against market price fluctuations due to change of foreign exchange or other reasons and shall be monitored at all times.
 - C. Liquidity Risk: In order to ensure liquidity, it shall be confirmed with the capital staff prior to the transaction that the transaction amount will not cause any insufficiency of liquidity.
 - D. Cash Risk: The Company shall maintain sufficient liquid assets and credit facilities to satisfy settlement capital requirements.
 - E. Process Risk: The Company shall have clear authorization amounts and process flows to avoid process risks.
 - F. Legal Risk: The documents between the Company and the transaction counterparties shall be reviewed by the internal legal staff or legal consultants before they are officially signed to avoid legal risks.

10. Internal Control

- A. The transaction staff of the Company may not also serve as confirmation staff or settlement staff.
- B. Upon occurrence of a transaction, the transaction staff shall immediately complete the transaction closing form and confirm with the confirmation staff. The confirmation staff shall confirm with the transaction counterparty based on the closing form and make records in the general positions chart for reference.
- C. When the Company engages in derivative product transactions, the evaluation, supervision and control of relevant risks shall be under the responsibility of internal audit staff independent from the finance department who reports to the board of directors and the chairman.

11. Regular Evaluation Method and Anomaly Handling

The finance department shall perform derivatives trading positions held shall be evaluated at least once per week; however, positions for hedge trades required by business shall be evaluated at least twice per month. The evaluation report shall be submitted to the senior staff authorized by the board of directors. Any anomaly shall be immediately reported to the board of directors and necessary corresponding measures shall be taken.

The evaluation shall include the following:

- A. Regularly evaluate whether the performance of derivative product transactions engaged are consistent with the existing operational strategy.
- B. Whether the risks undertaken are within the Company's scope of tolerance.
- C. Monthly evaluation of risk management measures: Regularly evaluate whether the risk management measures currently used are suitable and duly compliant with the Derivative Product Transaction procedure established by the Company.
- D. The finance department shall proceed in accordance with the Commercial Accounting Act, the Financial Accounting Standards and letters and orders from relevant competent authorities. If there is no relevant rules, details shall be recorded and calculations shall be made on monthly basis under statements of realized and unrealized profit and loss.

Article 20

Where the Company engaging in derivatives trading, its board of directors shall faithfully supervise and manage such trading in accordance with the following principles:

1. Designate senior management personnel to pay continuous attention to monitoring and controlling derivatives trading risk.
2. Periodically evaluate whether derivatives trading performance is consistent with established operational strategy and whether the risk undertaken is within the Company's permitted scope of tolerance.

Senior management personnel authorized by the board of directors shall manage derivatives trading in accordance with the following principles:

1. Periodically evaluate the risk management measures currently employed are appropriate and are faithfully conducted in accordance with these Regulations and the procedures for engaging in derivatives trading formulated by the Company.
2. When irregular circumstances are found in the course of supervising trading and profit-loss circumstances, appropriate measures shall be adopted and a report immediately made to the board of directors; where a company has independent directors, an independent director shall be present at the meeting and express an opinion.

The Company shall report to the soonest meeting of the board of directors after it authorizes the relevant personnel to handle derivatives trading in accordance with its Procedures for Engaging in Derivatives Trading.

Article 21

The Company engaging in derivatives trading shall establish a log book in which details of the types and amounts of derivatives trading engaged in, board of directors approval dates, and the matters required to be carefully evaluated under subparagraph 11 of Article 19 and subparagraph 2 of paragraph 1 of Article 20, and subparagraph 1 of paragraph 2 of Article 20 shall be recorded in detail in the log book.

The Company's internal audit personnel shall periodically make a determination of the suitability of internal controls on derivatives and conduct a monthly audit of how faithfully derivatives trading by the trading department adheres to the procedures for engaging in derivatives trading, and prepare an audit report. If any material violation is discovered, the audit committee shall be notified in writing.

Article 22

Evaluation and Procedure for Merger, Division, Acquisition or Share Transfer

1. Evaluation and Procedure If the Company engages in any merger, division, acquisition or share transfer, it shall engage attorneys, accountants and underwriters to jointly study and discuss the legal procedure and estimated timetable. A project team shall be organized for execution in accordance with the legal procedure.
2. Transaction Consideration Determination Method and Reference Benchmark If the Company engages in any merger, division, acquisition or share transfer, it shall consider the past and future financial and operational status of the participating companies, estimate proceeds that may occur in the future and fair method for transaction price determined by the market. Professional opinions from accountants, attorneys or securities underwriters shall be referred to as well as negotiated price by the counterparty participating in the merger, division, acquisition or share transfer.
3. Expert Opinions
The Company that conducts a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares, prior to convening the board of directors to resolve on the matter, shall engage a CPA, attorney, or securities underwriter to give an opinion on the reasonableness of the share exchange ratio, acquisition price, or distribution of cash or other property to shareholders, and submit it to the board of directors for deliberation and passage. However, the requirement of obtaining an aforesaid opinion on reasonableness issued by an expert may be exempted in the case of a merger by the Company of a subsidiary in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, and in the case of a merger between subsidiaries in which the Company directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the respective subsidiaries' issued shares or authorized capital.
4. Decision Level If the Company engages in any merger, division, acquisition or share transfer, the resolutions shall be in accordance with the Company Law and relevant legislations.

Article 23

The Company participating in a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares shall prepare a public report to shareholders detailing important contractual content and matters relevant to the merger, demerger, or acquisition prior to the shareholders meeting and include it along with the expert opinion referred to in paragraph 1 of the preceding Article when sending shareholders notification of the shareholders meeting for reference in deciding whether to approve the merger, demerger, or acquisition. Provided, where a provision of another act exempts a company from convening a shareholders meeting to approve the merger, demerger, or acquisition, this restriction shall not apply.

Where the shareholders meeting of any one of the companies participating in a merger, demerger, or acquisition fails to convene or pass a resolution due to lack of a quorum, insufficient votes, or other legal restriction, or the proposal is rejected by the shareholders meeting, the companies participating in the merger, demerger or acquisition shall immediately publicly explain the reason, the follow-up measures, and the preliminary date of the next shareholders meeting.

Article 24

The Company participating in a merger, demerger, or acquisition shall convene a board of directors meeting and shareholders meeting on the day of the transaction to resolve matters relevant to the merger, demerger, or acquisition, unless another act provides otherwise or the FSC is notified in advance of extraordinary circumstances and grants consent.

The Company participating in a transfer of shares shall call a board of directors meeting on the day of the transaction, unless another act provides otherwise or the FSC is notified in advance of extraordinary circumstances and grants consent. When participating in a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of another company's shares, the Company shall prepare a full written record of the following information and retain it for 5 years for reference:

Basic identification data for personnel: Including the occupational titles, names, and national ID numbers (or passport numbers in the case of foreign nationals) of all persons involved in the planning or implementation of any merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of another company's shares prior to disclosure of the information.

Dates of material events: Including the signing of any letter of intent or memorandum of understanding, the hiring of a financial or legal advisor, the execution of a contract, and the convening of a board of directors meeting.

Important documents and minutes: Including merger, demerger, acquisition, and share transfer plans, any letter of intent or memorandum of understanding, material contracts, and minutes of board of directors meetings.
